

VR Facts & Figures

- N.C. Vocational Rehabilitation provides counseling, training, education, medical, transportation, or other support services to persons with physical or mental disabilities in order to help them become independent or job-ready or both.
- In 2006, 2,271 consumers served by the Independent Living Program reached their independent living goals.
- A successful employment outcome was achieved by 8,405 of our consumers.
- The average weekly earnings of our consumers before receiving employment services was $53. Upon achieving employment, that average increased to $291.
- In 2006, successfully employed individuals earned a combined total of $2.4 million per week through employment gained with VR assistance.
- A seven-year study by the Research Triangle Institute indicated that individuals assisted in going to work by VR work an average 35 hours per week and earn an average $8 per hour. The study also showed that 78.4% work in professional, managerial, technical, clerical, sales or service jobs.
- Nationally, every VR dollar spent will earn back $2 to $4 in revenue from subsequent employment of VR consumers.
- Tax incentives are available to employers for hiring persons with disabilities and for adapting the workplace to accommodate an employee's specific disability.